

Changing Your Parenting Plan

Note: Use these instructions and forms to make changes to your Parenting Plan.

These instructions and forms may not be right for your case. They can not take the place of advice from a lawyer. Talk to a lawyer if you have any questions.

Do not change these forms. If you change the forms, you might lose language you need.

What Forms Will I Need to Make Changes to My Parenting Plan?

If you want to make changes to your Parenting Plan and the other parent agrees with the changes you want to make, you will need to fill out and file the following forms:

- Motion to Amend Parenting Plan
- Agreed Amended Parenting Plan
- Order Adopting Agreed Amended Parenting Plan
- Affidavit of Inability to Pay (only if you cannot afford filing fees)

The Motion to Amend Parenting Plan asks the court to make changes to your current Parenting Plan.

The Agreed Amended Parenting Plan outlines the new parenting schedule that you and the other parent have agreed on.

The Order Adopting Agreed Amended Parenting Plan will be filled out by the judge. It adopts the Agreed Amended Parenting Plan as your new Parenting Plan.

The Affidavit of Inability to Pay asks the court to waive filing fees in your case.

What Words Do I Need to Know?

Petitioner- A Petitioner is someone who files an action in court. If you filed the first action for divorce or a parenting plan, you are the Petitioner.

Respondent- A Respondent is someone who has been filed against in court. If the other parent filed the first action for divorce or a parenting plan, you are the Respondent.

Moving Party- The Moving Party is the parent who wants to make changes to the Parenting Plan and files a Motion to Amend Parenting Plan.

Non-moving Party- The Non-moving Party is the parent who does not file forms to make changes to the current Parenting Plan.

Who Can Use the Form?

You can use this form if:

- You have a Parenting Plan ordered by a Montana court, and
- You and the other parent agree to make changes to your parenting plan, and
- You will file to change your parenting plan in the same court that made it.

What Do I Do with The Forms?

1 Fill out the Forms

- Fill out all the blanks on the Motion to Amend Parenting Plan and the Agreed Amended Parenting Plan.
- Do not put in full birth dates of anyone, the children's full names, or full social security numbers of anyone. You can put in the year of birth for anyone and the children's initials. You will need to use another form called a "sensitive data sheet" to give the court more information. You can get that form from your local court or from the place you got this form.
- Put your name and the other parent's name in the caption of the Order Adopting Agreed Amended Parenting Plan. The caption looks like this:

|---|---|
| Montana _____ Judicial District Court Number of the judicial district where you are filing _____ County Name of the county where you are filing | |
| In re the marriage of/ parenting of minor children _____ Petitioner and _____ Respondent | Cause No.: _____ Dept No.: _____ Filled out by Clerk of District Court Name of Form |

- Sign, date, and notarize both your Motion to Amend Parenting Plan and one of the Declarations attached to the Agreed Amended Parenting Plan. If you are the Petitioner, sign the Petitioner's Declaration. If you are the Respondent, sign the Respondent's Declaration.

- Have the other parent sign, date, and notarize the other Declaration.

2 Make Copies

- Make at least one copy of each form once you have them filled out. You will need to bring the copies with you to the hearing.

3 File Forms at the Courthouse

- File the original Motion to Amend Parenting Plan, Agreed Amended Parenting Plan, and Order Adopting Agreed Amended Parenting Plan with the Clerk of District Court in the county where your original Parenting Plan was filed.

- Give your copies to the Clerk of District Court and ask her to stamp them as “Filed”. Keep the copies in a safe place. You will need them at your hearing.

4 Go to Your Hearing

- Bring your stamped copies of the forms you filed with the court.

- Arrive at the courthouse at least 15 minutes before your scheduled hearing. Dress like you were going to an important job interview.

- Check with the Clerk of Court’s office to find the right courtroom for your hearing. Go to that courtroom and wait for the judge to call your name and case number. Remember to address the judge as “Your Honor”.

- Be prepared to tell the judge why you and the other parent want to make changes to your Parenting Plan.

Where can I get more information?

The Montana Code Annotated (M.C.A.) contains the law on changing your Parenting Plan. The laws related to changing your Parenting Plan can be found in Title 40, Chapter 4. The M.C.A. can be found at your local library or on the Montana State Law Library website at www.lawlibrary.mt.gov. 4 Prior Parenting Plan

This Court entered a final parenting plan for our children on (mm/dd/yyyy):

_____.

5 Change in Circumstances

Circumstances have changes since the Court entered our prior parenting plan. I explain the changes in my Supporting Affidavit, which I am filing with this Motion.

Legal Basis

1 Jurisdiction

This Court ordered a final parenting plan in this action. This Court has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction under Mont. Code Ann. § 40-7-202.

2 Amendment of Parenting Plan

- a. Montana law says the court may change a prior parenting plan if:
- Facts have changed since the parenting plan was entered; or
 - The change in the parenting plan is needed to serve the best interests of the child(ren). (Mont. Code Ann. § 40-4-219(1).).

The circumstances of the child(ren) have changed. These changes are outlined in my Supporting Affidavit.

- b. Choose Any That Apply (Optional):

- It is not in the child(ren)'s best interest when one parent does not allow the other parent to see the child(ren) or tries to keep the other parent from seeing the child(ren). That is happening in this case. Mont. Code Ann. § 40-4-219(3)
- A parenting plan can be changed if one of the parents has died. Mont. Code Ann. §§ 40-4-219(6) and 40-4-221.
- It is not in the child(ren)'s best interest if one of the parents- or someone living with the parent- is convicted of any of the following crimes: deliberate homicide, mitigated deliberate homicide, sexual assault, sexual intercourse without consent, deviate sexual conduct with an animal, incest, aggravated promotion of prostitution of a child, endangering the welfare of children, partner or family member assault, or sexual abuse of children. Mont. Code Ann § 40-4-219(3) and (8). That is happening in this case.

- c. My Proposed Amended Parenting Plan is necessary to serve the best interests of our minor child(ren).

I respectfully ask this Court to:

- 1. Change our final parenting plan and adopt our Agreed Amended Parenting Plan, filed with this motion;
- 2. Order any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

_____.

9. Communications. Choose all that apply.

While our children are with one parent:

Our children will be able to initiate communication with the other parent at reasonable times.

The other parent is allowed to initiate communication with our children at reasonable times.

The other parent has a specific time to communicate with our children:

 Other (specify): _____
_____.

10. State and Federal Benefit Programs

Some state and federal benefit programs require one parent be designated custodian. This doesn't affect our parenting rights or responsibilities. It only affects which parent may include the children when they apply for benefits.

Choose One

For the purposes of state and federal benefit programs that require a designation of custodian the Mother Father is designated custodian.

OR

Other (specify): _____
_____.

11. Designation of Children for Income Tax Purposes.

Mother will claim all of our children as dependents on her income tax

every tax year in odd-numbered tax years in even numbered tax years

Father will claim all of our children as dependents on his income tax

every tax year in odd-numbered tax years in even-numbered tax years

Other (specify): _____
_____.

Each parent will fill out the necessary tax forms to claim our children as dependents for income tax purposes.

This arrangement will begin in the tax year our parenting plan is signed by the court.

12. Co-Parenting Guidelines.

- a. Each parent will promote a healthy relationship between our children and the other parent. We won't demean or speak negatively about the other in front of or to our children.
- b. Each parent will notify the other parent at least ____ minutes hours days in advance when we won't use or need our parenting time. The missed time won't be made up, unless we both agree.
- c. If Mother Father is more than _____ minutes late for their parenting time the other parent may cancel the parenting time. The missed time won't be made up, unless we both agree.
- d. Each parent will be flexible about our parenting time when family necessities, illnesses, or other commitments reasonably require a change. The requesting parent will act in good faith and give as much notice as circumstances permit.
- e. Each parent will supply our children with appropriate clothing, toys, games, or books for their scheduled parenting time with the other parent. These items are our children's and are to be returned with our children at the end of the parenting time.

OR

- Each parent will supply our children appropriate clothing, toys, games, or books for their scheduled parenting time while they are with us. Our children will not take these items between our houses. Any items that our children arrived with are to be returned at the end of the parenting time.
- f. Each parent is responsible for making sure that our children attend their regularly scheduled activities, including sports and other extra-curricular activities, while the children are with that parent.
- g. If our children has a special activity or medical condition that requires clothing and/or equipment that is not normally with the parent having parenting time, that parent must ask that the clothing and/or equipment comes with our children and returns with our children at the end of the parenting time.
- h. Each parent will encourage and protect healthy relationships between our children and relatives, family and friends. Usually the children will visit paternal relatives during the time when our children are with their father and with the maternal relatives during the time when our children are with their mother, unless we agree otherwise.

i. Each parent will guarantee the safety of the children. Activities that may be considered dangerous include: Choose all that apply.

Any person, including a parent, who abuse alcohol or use illegal drugs within 24 hours of contact with our children;

Second-hand smoke;

Other: _____

j. If a parent observes or becomes aware that the children are in physical danger, the observing party will immediately contact law enforcement and may file an action with the court to enforce this agreement. Temporary suspension of parenting time may be appropriate under the circumstances until the safety concerns are resolved.

13. Decision Making.

a. Both parents have the right to make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of our children.

b. We have the right to make decisions about the day-to-day care and control of our children while they are with us.

Choose any that apply.

c. We will make major decisions about our children's education together. If we cannot agree, the decision will be made by Mother Father.

d. We will make major decisions about our children's non-emergency health care together. If we cannot agree, the decision will be made by Mother Father.

e. We will make major decisions about our children's spiritual development together. If we cannot agree, the decision will be made by Mother Father either party during their respective parenting time.

f. We will make major decisions about our children's extra-curricular activities together. If we cannot agree, the decision will be made by Mother Father either party during their respective parenting time.

OR

g. Mother Father will be the sole decision maker about major decisions for our children's lives, including education non-emergency health care, spiritual development, and extra-curricular activities. This is in our children's best interest because:

h. Other (specify):

14. Access to Our Children's Information. Choose One.

We will both have access to all information about our children, including school records, counseling records, medical, and dental records. We can find this law at §40-4-225, M.C.A.

OR

It is appropriate that only Mother Father have access because _____
_____.

15. Access to Our Information. Choose One.

We will keep each other and the court updated in writing of the following:

- Residential and mailing addresses;
- Telephone numbers;
- Social Security numbers;
- Driver's license numbers;
- Name, address, and phone number of employers;
- Health insurance coverage for our children, including the insurance company, name of the plan, the policy identification number, and the names of the covered children;
- Health insurance coverage for our children which is available through an employer or other group, and if the employer or group would pay any part of the premium.

OR

It is appropriate that the personal information of Mother Father be kept confidential and not be given to the other parent because _____
_____.

16. Parent's Residential Change.

- a. If either of us plans to change the place we live and it will significantly affect the other parent's contact with our children, the moving parent must give notice to the other parent.
- b. The notice must be in writing and include a proposed amended parenting plan. (We can use Form MP-904 Notice of Intent to Move to give this notice.)
- c. There are two ways the moving parent may deliver the notice and proposed amended parenting plan to the other parent:
 - By having law enforcement or a person who is 18 or over and not a party to the case hand-deliver it to them,
 - Or by certified mail.
- d. The moving parent must file proof of service and the proposed amended parenting plan with this court.
- e. If the other parent objects to the proposed amended parenting plan, that parent must file an objection with the court within the 30-day period. If the other parent doesn't file an objection, this means they are in agreement with the moving parent and the court may adopt the plan.

17. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families and Family Medicaid Benefits. Choose One.

- Either Mother or Father is receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and/or Family Medicaid;

OR

- Neither party is receiving these benefits.

OR

- I do not know if Mother Father is receiving these benefits. I am not receiving any of these benefits.

18. Notice to Child Support Enforcement Division. Choose One.

- Child Support Enforcement Division has an active case to determine paternity, to establish or enforce child support, to establish or enforce medical support, or one of us is receiving these benefits. I notified Child Support Enforcement Division of this case. (Fill out and serve MP-404)

OR

- Child Support Enforcement Division does not have an active case and neither parent is receiving these benefits.

19. Child Support Calculation.

a. Child Support Amount.

Mother Father must pay $_____ per child per month for a total monthly obligation of $ _____ in child support to the other parent commencing on the _____ day of _____, 20__ because:

Choose one.

This amount is consistent with the attached final Child Support Enforcement Division Order signed by the Administrative Law Judge. (Write MP-300-D in the upper right hand corner of the CSED calculation order and paper clip it to this document.)

OR

This amount is consistent with the child support calculation prepared by Mother Father The Court other_____ (Write MP-300-E in the upper right hand corner of this calculation and paper clip to this document.)

OR

This amount is not consistent with the child support amount prepared by Child Support Enforcement Division Mother Father The Court or other_____ ; however, this amount is in the best interest of our child because:

(Write MP-300-E in the upper right hand corner all calculations made and documents used in reaching this child support amount and paper clip to this document)

OR

No one has calculated child support at this time. But, Child Support Enforcement Division has opened a case. The CSED case number is _____. Mother Father will file the CSED Child Support Order along with the Request for a Hearing on the Dissolution.

b. Child Support Payments. Choose One.

On or before the first of every month, Mother Father must make payments to Child Support Enforcement Division. Payments must be made to CSED if a party is receiving Title IV-A Benefits (TANF, Family Medicaid), or Title IV-D benefit (if there is an active case with CSED). We can find this law at §40-5-909, M.C.A.

OR

On or before the _____ day of each month, Mother Father must make payments directly to Mother or Father.

OR

On or before the first of each month, Mother Father must make payments to the Clerk of District Court.

20. Immediate Income Withholding. Choose One.

Mother's Father's income is subject to immediate income withholding. We can find this law beginning at §40-5-315, M.C.A.

OR

The child support order is exempt from immediate income withholding because:

21. Child Support Termination. Child support payments must continue until:

Choose One.

The child turns 18 or graduates from high school, whichever occurs later but no later than when the child turns 19.

OR

Father Mother agrees to continue to pay child support until: _____ because _____.

22. Medical Support. Choose One.

a. The Montana Child Support Enforcement Division or another appropriate agency or court established a medical support order.

Choose One:

The medical support order is included in the attached Child Support Order

OR

The medical support order is separate and I am attaching it. (Write MP-300-F in the upper right hand corner of the medical support order and paper clip it to this document.)

OR

The minor children need their medical and dental expenses to be covered. There is no medical support order and the court should adopt the attached medical support order. (Fill out and paper clip Form MP-300-G to this document.)

b. Our responsibilities:

- a. We will fill out, sign, and deliver all necessary documents to the insurance company to make sure our children are continuously covered under the plan.
- b. We will timely submit claims to the insurance company for processing.
- c. We will give each other insurance cards or other methods for access to coverage.
- d. If the insurance company reimburses a parent who didn't pay the bill, that parent will immediately pay the parent who did pay the bill.
- e. If one of us is responsible for paying medical costs and expenses and we don't pay, the court may enter a judgment against us for unpaid support. The Court may hold that parent in contempt for non-payment of support.
- f. If we are responsible for paying the insurance premium and we don't, the other parent, the Department of Public Health and Human Services, or other responsible party, may pay the premium. The court may enter a judgment against the nonpaying parent for unpaid support. The Court may hold that parent in contempt for non-payment.

NOTICE: The court may impose civil penalties for intentionally violating the medical support order. You can find this law at §40-5-821, M.C.A.

23. Review of Parenting Plan.

We will review this parenting plan with each other when there is a significant change of circumstance. When we disagree about this parenting plan, we will act in the best interest of our children. Choose One:

We will:

- Step 1: Try to resolve our issues through informal discussion;
- Step 2: If possible, we will take our issues to a professional mediator.

We agree our first-choice of mediator will be

We agree that Father will pay _____% and Mother will pay _____% of the cost of the mediator.

- Step 3: If we are unable to resolve our issues, we will file a formal motion and ask the court to decide.

OR

Mediation is not appropriate because there is reason to suspect domestic violence and we will ask the judge to decide our issues through a formal motion.

24. Violation of the Parenting Plan.

If a parent has actual knowledge of these parenting plan terms and that parent violates those terms, that person may be charged with a crime, be arrested, have to pay a fine and go to jail. We can find this law at §§ 45-5-631 or 45-7-309 M.C.A.

25. Modification.

The Court can only modify this agreement, if:

- we both agree to the modification, or
- there is a substantial change in circumstances, and one of us files a motion with the court.

NOTICE: The Department of Public Health and Human Services or one of us may request Child Support Enforcement Division modify our child support order if one of us is receiving services under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act, or Child Support Enforcement Division is providing enforcement services. We can find this law at starting at § 40-5-271(3), M.C.A..

List: _____

A separate form MP-300-B is attached for each of our minor children.

2. Special Schedule Rules

- a. There are specific tables for holiday, school breaks, vacation, and special occasions.
- b. If a single day holiday falls on a Friday or a Monday, we will treat this as a three-day weekend unless we indicate differently on the Holiday chart.
- c. Unless we specify different times, all single day holidays will start at _____ a.m. and end at _____ p.m.
- d. Any three-day weekend, holiday, school break, or special occasion that is not specified will be spent with the parent who would normally have that time.
- e. If there is a conflict between the different schedules that have our children scheduled to be with both of us on the same day, we will resolve this conflict by using the following ranking to determine who our children will be with.
- f. Rank the order of priority, with 1 being the highest priority

MP-300-G Description of Existing Medical Coverage

NOTICE: The cost of medical insurance or health benefit plan may be considered in a child support calculation if it is known at the time of calculation, but it is not necessarily a dollar for dollar credit.

B. Contingency Medical Support.

If the minor child(ren) are either (i) covered by Medicaid, (ii) are not covered under an existing insurance plan, or (iii) if the existing coverage becomes no longer available, the following provisions shall apply:

- a. The Petitioner must provide medical coverage for the child(ren), as long as it is available at reasonable cost, and as long as there is no other insurance plan that will better serve the parties.
- b. The Respondent must provide medical coverage for the child(ren), as long as it is available at reasonable cost, and as long as there is no other insurance plan that will better serve the parties.
- c. Both parties must provide insurance, if both parents have insurance plans that are at a combined reasonable cost and whose benefits are complementary or compatible with each other.
- e. If the primary parent has obtained individual insurance or a health benefits plan for the child, both parents may agree in writing to share the costs of maintaining the coverage.
- f. If circumstances change and a party believes that changes in cost are not reasonable or cost-beneficial, the party may ask the court to change the medical support order.
